

Nothing.

Acrés

Drowning in these chemicals
I've lost my mind but I believe
That you're the one that's done this to me
Lock me up and swallow the key
Leave me in a fantasy
And pull apart the pieces of me

So you can come alive

Maybe I've been dreaming all alone
Suffocate and watch me hurt so you can come alive
Without me, you're just fading into nothing
I'll watch you fall apart

And I've been doing fine on my own
And I watched you take back
Everything you once had
Paralysed by the whites of your eyes
Suffocate and watch me burn
So you can come alive

So you can come alive

Maybe I've been dreaming all alone
Suffocate and watch me hurt so you can come alive
Without me you're just fading into nothing
I'll watch you fall apart

Paralysed, by the whites of your eyes
Paralysed, by the whites of your eyes

Still can't seem to shake myself half-awake in this hell I'll light the match and watch it burn
Burn, don't you ever return
Burn, don't you ever return

Maybe I've been dreaming all alone
Suffocate and watch me hurt so you can come alive
Without me you're just fading into nothing
I'll watch you fall apart
Maybe I've been dreaming all alone
Suffocate and watch me hurt so you can come alive
Without me you're just fading into nothing
