

Remember Your Place Here

Acres

I refuse to
To let this burn out
To flicker and die
And turn to memory
I can't regret
When I grow old
There will be peace in our hearts if we hold this Deep inside

And every night I spent
I spent alone
Did I ever stand a chance?
Would you let me drown?
Don't let me drown
Don't let me drown

When it fell through my hands
When it tore through my head
I would die just to know
Are you even alive
And remember me
Remember your place here
As broken as I am
I am
Alive
