

Dark Mind

Acroma

In the walls between our hearts and brains, danger awaits
There are holes on the floor of the mind

Our minds connect all sorts of fantasies
When we don't want to believe something

Another day another night
Bury everything you hide
I don't need anything everything is falling to the ground
Another day another fight
I trusted when you were lying
I don't need anything
I Will rise again

All I see is dark swimming behind my eyelids
I dream darkness come into me
my nose into my ears
I feel poisoned

Shut up!
Don't Say any words
You own me everything you are
I love you
I hate you
Remember who I am
I protect you
You break me
Don't you dare to touch me again

Another day another fight
Bury everything you hide
I don't need anything everything is falling to the ground

All I see is dark swimming behind my eyelids
I dream darkness come into me
my nose into my ears
I feel poisoned
