

Destiny Is Reality

Acroma

this destination is reality who is knocking on my door you're watching me
rise again
I pick up the remains I'll make me own way

forging every step
don't corrupt your ideals
never give up
just resist attack
don't let words hurt you don't let you down
don't let the absence
break you, get up

suddenly that light blinds
my voice is broken
only that sweet voice guides me resist here I am

No!, no everything is not so far
you are here in every part No everything is in vain Destiny is reality, destiny is reality

don't let you down
