

In The Face Of Adversity

Across The Sun

The wait is over now
Safe to say
The real work has begun
Gave everything
To make it happen

What lies ahead is anybody's guess
Come way too far
To not see this through
Not make our dreams come true

So much uncertainty
Lies beneath the surface
Clouding foresight
Into the future

What if the signs are false
Not meant for greatness
Would it be all for nothing

Trading one life for the other
Conquering the fear within
Worry must subside forever

Only few can boast
Of truly sacrificing
All that is held dear

To seize the rare chance
Of reaching one's ultimate potential
Realizing capability
To become more than imagined

So here's to making the best
Of what opportunity offers
With no regard to every naysayer
May our triumph say it all

Faith is all we need to carry on
Strength in unity will be the key
To take this journey on
