I'm fully blown like Tom Hanks in Philadelphia

I'm out for self-ia, Bronson not helpin' ya

Trying to get the Lexus ah oysters for breakfast ah

I'm still in queens that's my native land

I sport a headdress baby veil on the headrest

Bitch

Buscemi frame by my favorite chair

Asian hair on a dominican with cajun flare

I keep the coke clean, father and son dope fiends

Mother and daughter strippers sniffing all the codeine

Affliction shirts and dress paints like I'm Oakley

Three bitches waiting for me Toyki oh shit

Roll whip, panorama tough

Salamander tux, fucking Alabama Butts

Ah we known to galavant in trucks

With an Irish bitch that will put a hammer to your nuts

Compose a fly rap with an 18 karat meisterstuck

My people like to shoot

Bronsolino dice the fluke

Phenomenal fish platters

Plus everyday is turkey day

My vision is clear so now we getting it the murky way

Pillaging daily plus we give thanks and fill tanks with premium

Cadillacs my people always steaming them

Turn the car into a sauna with some marijuana

If you know Bronsolino then you know that's his persona

Slang school PHd holders in the building

Far from elementary but we do this for the children

Ready able and willing

Dealing constantly building

Seen niggas make a million standing outside they building

I'm from New York home of the hustle

Where skinny people move big cause chrome is the muscle

Just to get a rep you get left with a darker past

You just a little sick my fucking flow is Arthur Ashe
