

Coming Up

Active Child

Give me some time to wander through my aching mind
Different names for all I ask to see the truth

But they keep coming up a long time now with yourself
They keep coming up a long time now with yourself

Everyone knows the road, it bends away from you
Infinite love surrounding all that you do

But they keep coming up a long time now with yourself, oh
They keep coming up a long time now with yourself

Coming up a long time now
Coming up a long time now
Coming up a long time now
Coming up a long time now
Coming up a long time now
Coming up a long time now
