

Set Me Free

Active Child

Lean on me
And I will give all that I've got
In the power I hold inside of these lights

You, you set me free
It's coming back to me

Baby, to your heart, heart, heart
I didn't recognise until you'd gone
I lay down, lay down

What can I give
To show how much
This gift of soul
It's all too much
For me to comprehend
Hmmmm

You, you set me free
It's coming back to me

Baby, to your heart, heart, heart
I didn't recognise until you'd gone
I lay down, lay down
