

No Arms No Legs

Acumen Nation

The gun in your back is a gat
And if you move I'll blow your brains through your hat
And if you give me half a chance I'll drag you down
And leave you lying with no arms and no legs
Because I love you, but I'd k you
Because you're human, and I hate you
And if the phone is ringing and you can't reach out
You can't get up, can't get up, with no arms and no legs
And if your baby is crying on the floor
You can't get up with no arms and no legs
You ain't got the balls to be a hero
With no arms and no legs
