

Dead End

Ad Infinitum

Leave them behind
Leave on the ground
All the pieces and bricks
Cover my mouth
Cover my eyes
Like a solar eclipse
I wanna breathe
I wanna feel
You're not gonna bring me down
Remember the games
Remember the blame
All the tricks and the lies

Tried to scare me away from the fire
Now I think I'm in love with the thunder

Your illusions, your demise
Feels like rain in Paradise
When reality's a lie
There's a dead end to it

There's a dead end to it
There's a dead end to it

I cannot talk
I cannot walk
But I know how to fly
Nothing to say
Nothing to pray
No matter how hard you try
Feeling at peace
Feeling the breeze
Dancing on my skin
I know you crave
I know you hate
To see me rising so high

I think I love how it feels when you hate me
And being the villain in your little story

Your illusions, your demise
Feels like rain in Paradise
When reality's a lie
There's a dead end to it

There's a dead end to it
There's a dead end to it

Your illusions, your demise
Feels like rain in Paradise
When reality's a lie
There's a dead end to it

There's a dead end to it
There's a dead end to it
