

From The Ashes

Ad Infinitum

Diving deep, out of breath, the surface out of sight
Darkest places hide some unknown sources of life
All the melodies, memories and all these lullabies
Cutting deep as the sensations start to revive

Day after day I'm alive
Out of the maze, I design
The shape of a new paradise

No, you won't have my cries
From ashes into the sky, I will arise
Crimson dreams meant to die
Reveries of the mind
Guiding my way
Into devious light

How can we reconcile when the bridges have burned
One step from the edge, how can one dream to return
I was born in flames and I learnt how to walk in the fire
Turned my pain into the source of a brighter light

Step after step I come back
Still I can hear the lullaby
My ghosts lead the way I define

No, you won't have my cries
From ashes into the sky, I will arise
Crimson dreams meant to die
Reveries of the mind
Guiding my way
Into devious light

No, you won't have my cries
From ashes into the sky, I will arise
Crimson dreams meant to die
Reveries of the mind

No, you won't have my cries
From ashes into the sky, I will arise
Crimson dreams meant to die
Reveries of the mind
Guiding my way
Into devious light
