Haunted

Ad Infinitum

Destiny, tragically, was chosen for you
The call of your duty that's ringing like a
Symphony of agony, a nightmare come true
I shall wait, come back by my side

And as time passes by
Love turns into a pain I can barely survive
What a sad lullaby

Haunting my dreams like a ghost in the night
A nightmare so real or a vision divine
Solemnly dancing with me like a farewell
A serenade under the stars
Every night crushing my heart

The sun arises one more time on a new day
Torn apart by this love, your presence starts to Fade away, but I will wait, and fight my way
In the light, as I long for the night

Haunting my dreams like a ghost in the night
A nightmare so real or a vision divine
Solemnly dancing with me like a farewell
A serenade under the stars
Every night crushing my heart

Blood for blood
The answer of it all
The tragedy blinding our kind
Our kind

And as life passes by
Time seems to fly away but the pain never dies
Oh my heart is on fire

Haunting my dreams like a ghost in the night
A nightmare so real or a vision divine
Solemnly dancing with me like a farewell
A serenade under the stars
Every night crushing my heart
Every night crushing my heart
