

Maleficent

Ad Infinitum

You
You better go
You better go now
(Better go back, now go back)
Go away

You are the fool inside my head
But I wear the crown
You are the demon under my bed
But you better hide

On the darkest of days
Your voice might make me crawl
But not today
Hear my voice as I stand tall

I offer you this final dance
Resounding in the darkest night
Show me your final reverence
Without you I'll be alright
I offer you this final dance
Open your eyes in silence
Watch me rise

So many years have passed
With you by my side
So many tears have fallen
That I won't get back

You are my face, use my hands
You know my heart
We are the same, but today
I want you to go away

I offer you this final dance
Resounding in the darkest night
Show me your final reverence
Without you I'll be alright
I offer you this final dance
Open your eyes in silence
Watch me rise

Watch me rise
Watch me rise

One lullaby, sweet and sour
Destruction and denial
Enemy, greeting my alternative reality

I offer you this final dance
Resounding in the darkest night
Show me your final reverence
Without you I'll be alright
I offer you this final dance
Watch me rise
