

Somewhere Better

Ad Infinitum

Drowning or entering a fire
I will cast a storm upon their lying smiles
I can feel deep inside
There's a voice, a flame keeping me alive

I open my heart, my eyes
Sometimes it feels better to know
To know

We ignite
Still dreaming wide awake
On the hunt for Somewhen brighter
Pull me back now
I'll dream until my dying day
Create a new Somewhere better

The promise of a life
Like a thousand suns inside my broken heart
I can see through your eyes
And embrace the flame that guides me through the night

Rising above the tides
I know that I needed to fall
To grow

We ignite
Still dreaming wide awake
On the hunt for Somewhen brighter
Pull me back now
I'll dream until my dying day
Create a new Somewhere better

We ignite
Still dreaming wide awake
On the hunt for Somewhen brighter (Somewhen brighter)
Pull me back now
I'll dream until my dying day
Create a new Somewhere better
Create a new Somewhere better
