

Surrender

Ad Infinitum

Lost in the rhythm between the lights and the sounds
Can hear you breathing and feel the pulse in the ground
My heart is beating
No, you can't turn back anymore

Chills down my spine

Call me the Devil
You can blame me for your sins
Deny the flames of this violet chemistry
Exhilarating when everyone is watching

No I don't really want to go
This is what I've been looking for
Tomorrow is unknown
Stay here for a minute, yeah just a minute
What if we just go?

Floating between the oceans and skies
Can't stop the feeling
It comes out at night
When I am lonely
So don't leave here all alone

I don't wanna know
If tomorrow's given yeah if it's given

What if we just left the world at the door
Threw away the keys, no worries, no more
What if we just sailed away from this shore
Losing my cool, oh tell me I'm not a fool
What if we just let it go?

We're a bunch of fucking animals
But we're so civilized
We're just a bunch of fucking animals
Yet we're so civilized

I don't wanna know
If tomorrow's given yeah if it's given

What if we just left the world at the door
Threw away the keys, no worries, no more
What if we just sailed away from this shore
Losing my cool, oh tell me I'm not a fool
What if we just, we just

Left the world at the door
Threw away the keys, no worries, no more
What if we just sailed away from this shore
Losing my cool, oh tell me I'm not a fool
What if we just let it
