

Upside Down

Ad Infinitum

Are you feeling alone
As the pages burn, all is set in stone
Hope is fading away
Now the tables turn, so you turn and pray

A sad illusion, the taste of a lie
In your delusion, nowhere to hide
But tell me why you swim against the tides

Upside down
You fool yourself and you hide in disguise
I see you now
Drop that crown
You burned the bridges
Get ready to dive!

Are you still feeling alive
Now your world's been turned upside down
How does it feel to be mad
At the simple fact that you're born to die?

In your reality gold is divine
Your head is high and close to the sky
So tell me why your crown is falling down

Upside down
You fool yourself and you hide in disguise
I see you now
Drop that crown
You burned the bridges
Get ready to dive!

Watch out
Poisoned by greed and denial
Your mind is sinking in
The void of your demise

Upside down
You fool yourself and you hide in disguise
I see you now
Drop that crown
You burned the bridges
Get ready to dive!

Upside down
You fool yourself and you hide in disguise
I see you now
Drop that crown
You burned the bridges
Get ready to dive! (Ready to dive!)

Upside down
You fool yourself and you hide in disguise
I see you now
Drop that crown
You burned the bridges
Get ready to dive!
