How do I explain how God became a man
That men might be the sons of God
And how do I describe how glory swallowed shame
Instead of shame you gave a crown

I look at me, I see you
And its a wonder to my soul
Your love for me I can't explain
I look at me, I see you
This is what your grace has done
Your love for me I can't describe

You're beautiful, is so beautiful
You're beautiful, is so beautiful

You're lovely and true
Lord it makes my heart to sing
Your beauty is most beautiful
Your beauty makes beautiful

How do I explain how grace became a man
That men by grace now dignified
And how do I describe how I, oh I
Became a friend of God

You look at me you see you
This is what your grace has done
Your love for me I can't describe

You're beautiful, is so beautiful
You're beautiful, is so beautiful

You're lovely and true
It makes my heart to sing
Your beauty is most beautiful
Your beauty makes beautiful

You're excellent is so excellent
You're lovely is so lovely
You're wonderful is so wonderful
You're beautiful is so beautiful

You're lovely and true
It makes my heart to sing
You're lovely and true
It makes my heart to sing
Your beauty is most beautiful
