The Mirror Stage

[Verse] What is that shape in front of me Spying through the looking glass ? This figure is haunting me, Aping my every gestures, Stealing my soul, my self, The presence of menace is lurking Behind the translucent surface [Chorus] I can't face that figure Who looks like me, like a twin. Who is in the mirror, The similarity, It can't be me! [Verse] I can't acknowledge that individual; That reflection in the mirror is not my Own: The beholder may perceive the evil spark In the clearness of the eye, Mirroring the darkness of the heart, The horror! And yet who can it possibly be? [Chorus] I can't face that figure Who looks like me, like a twin. Who is in the mirror,

Adagio

The similarity,

I doubt it can be...
