Navel to Neck

Adam and the Ants

Give me your hand here is mine Better in the open It's showtime let's call the tune

He's her baby boy Navel to neck Give me your mouth I want to kiss you

Something deep inside me waits You're giving up your daughters But perfection is so dull

He's her baby boy Navel to neck Give me your mouth I want to kiss you

That's the way the honey goes Sweeter than a toy From his tippy to his toes He's he baby boy

Every inch of you I prize Your body is a vision And all the while look in your eyes
