

Catch Hell

Adam Calhoun

Oh Lord, I ain't never gonna run
From no one, you fuckin' with the wrong one, yeah
'Cause you can get it right (ay), you can get it right
Run up, catch hell, take this L, you can get it right (ay)

Oh Lord, I ain't never gonna run
From no one, you fuckin' with the wrong one, yeah
'Cause you can get it right (ay), you can get it right
Run up, catch hell, take this L, you can get it right (ay)

My throne, this is my throne
Heavy is the crown, and this shit is so cold
So cold like my veins, I ain't never lied
Castin' out these demons like I'm castin' out a line

Okay chill, calm your horses, you get killed like abortions
I'm so real, make you fear, them bullets hit you in your torso
How you want it? You can get it, split 'em like some firewood
I'm just out here by myself, wish-a-motha-fucka-would Okay, hit 'em with the buckshot, no fuck shit
Go ahead 'cause I got not fucks to give What's up bitch? Lookin' for a lick, well shit
I'm pissed, I don't need no pistol, hit 'em with fists
Life's a bitch, mine's a hooker and she's rich
And I'm a pimp, so off that money miss me with that funny shit
Country rappers make me sick, half of y'all can't rap for shit
Comin' at you like a pit, then I'm passin' you like Vick
I feel bad for laughin', when this half-assed rappin' gonna quit?
I ain't known for runnin', but just know I came to run this shit
For real

Oh Lord, I ain't never gonna run
From no one, you fuckin' with the wrong one, yeah
'Cause you can get it right (ay), you can get it right
Run up, catch hell, take this L, you can get it right (ay)

Two tiimes, hit 'em two times
Castin' out these demons like I'm castin' out a line
I ain't lyin' fist fight me, whooey like a girl
In the woods spinnin' tires, paint looks like a pearl

Ayy, we got the sausage, you with the crust
Feel the hit sit down deep in your gut
One little gunshot make the barn rock with the fart
Middle finger up, cook 'em in the crock pot
Hop out while it's runnin', what up
You will never see me comin', shut up
All my critics mind your business
Ain't hear nothin' but some crickets
Butter you up like homemade biscuits
Don't kiss ass but damn sure kick it
Bitches, I'm up in these trenches

Busta lookin' like a princess
Princess up in lifted trucks
No DJ but I mix it up
No replay so live it up
Don't take L's, we winnin' yup

We winnin', come get it
You fakin', we livin'
Yeah, yeah, yeah

Oh Lord, I ain't never gonna run
From no one, you fuckin' with the wrong one, yeah
'Cause you can get it right (ay), you can get it right
Run up, catch hell, take this L, you can get it right (ay)

Oh Lord, I ain't never gonna run
From no one, you fuckin' with the wrong one, yeah
'Cause you can get it right (ay), you can get it right
Run up, catch hell, take this L, you can get it right (ay, ay, ay)
