

You pissed off, comin' at the jaw
Callin' out all the imposters set 'em up to watch 'em fall
Even if you had a second chance you would stall
I'm strikin' like a viper while you barkin' like a dog (Hey)
Oh oh I seen 'em rough
I was dealt the aces, back to basics, I'ma call the bluff
Oh oh have you had enough?
Dealt across the waist, in your face, come and get you some

It's been a hell of a road, still got a long way to go
I remember standin' outside lookin' through the window (Window)
Out in the cold, rain, sleet, hail, snow
Workin' like a slave just to get a little gold
Now I'm out and I'm rich, I ain't got time for no bitch
I ain't even got a minute for you pussies talkin' shit
When it's all said and done I'ma be the one
And you just gon' be lookin' down the barrel of my gun
Click bang motherfuckers, I came with my brothers
You came with some suckers and like to bang they cousins
I got rifles be the dozens, I got ammo by the buckets
All you got is rusty trucks stuck in the mud pit, huh

You pissed off, comin' at the jaw
Callin' out all the imposters set 'em up to watch 'em fall
Even if you had a second chance you would stall
I'm strikin' like a viper while you barkin' like a dog (Hey)
Oh oh I seen 'em rough
I was dealt the aces, back to basics, I'ma call the bluff
Oh oh have you had enough?
Dealt across the waist, in your face, come and get you some

It's been a hell of a road, still got a long way to go
I've seen the highest of highs, felt the lowest of lows
Out in the cold, rain, sleet, hail, snow
Now I'm a made man better give me what you owe
Oh, what you thought I was just gonna go?
Out the door without comin' for your throat
In my scope bustin' shots at you
Oh oh oh
Get smoked like them boys from Cypress Hill
Say I won't, bet I will, hope you fuckers wrote your will Who's tryna get killed? I forgot to take my pills
Step up get your feel, left hook to your grill

You pissed off, comin' at the jaw
Callin' out all the imposters set 'em up to watch 'em fall
Even if you had a second chance you would stall
I'm strikin' like a viper while you barkin' like a dog (Hey)
Oh oh I seen 'em rough
I was dealt the aces, back to basics, I'ma call the bluff
Oh oh have you had enough?
Dealt across the waist, in your face, come and get you some
