

One Hundred

Adam Calhoun

I got ninety nine problems
I don't think about em
I keep it a thousand
You, you ain't one hundred
I just want the money
You know how we comin
I, I came to run and
You should get to runnin

I got ninety nine problems
I don't think about em
I keep it a thousand
You, you ain't one hundred
I just want the money
You know how we comin
I, I came to run and
You should get to runnin

This some other shit
Came up from the gutter shit
Rolled up out that muddy shit
Made sure I brought my buddies with
Fuck you pay me
Better have my money bitch
Bag better weigh a ton
I'm talkin couple hundred bricks
Ain't talkin bout drugs
All you new rappers suck a dick
What you gonna do about it
Nothing, you a fucking bitch
And what you rapping about
In your little skinny jeans
And why your ass hang out
Boy you couldn't fit in these
I'm so sick of these dudes trippin off the lean
Awfully sad bunch of face tats is all you need
To get a following that and some molly
I'm a real spitter you just love swallowing

I got ninety nine problems
I don't think about em
I keep it a thousand
You, you ain't one hundred
I just want the money
You know how we comin
I, I came to run and
You should get to runnin

I got ninety nine problems
I keep it a thousand
I, I came to run and

I ain't tryin to do what you doin
I did a half billion stream last year stupid
No one gives a fuck about your music
You got like a couple thousand views
And you think that you're doing shit
I'm boomin eh, boom boom boom
And I ain't fucking with nobody in this room
I'ma goon (Goon), ok cool
Enough about me, let's talk about you (Hold up)
Who did your wardrobe
Clothing store looking like it's foreclosed
Who shot that
Where'd you get them poor hoes
You don't even own that car
I can buy like four of those
Your bank account fucked up
You need a couple more O's
You say it you don't live it
You fake it you a gimmick
You make it no one listens
Why you playin this is business
Listen listen, this is different fabric
I'm askin what happened to this rap shit
This new shit is trash bin

I got ninety nine problems
