

Stranger

Adam Cohen

Everybody's a stranger,
Everybody's just passing through.
Everybody's a stranger,
Everybody's just passing through.

We're all looking for somebody,
Who's looking for us too,
Tryin' to find our way off Lonesome Avenues.

Everybody's a stranger,
Everybody's just passing through.
Everybody's a stranger,
Everybody's just passing through.

We're all looking for somebody,
Who's looking for us too,
Tryin' to find our way off Crowded Avenues.

Look at all the lonely people,
Afraid of other lonely people,
It's unbelievable.

Everybody's a stranger,
Everybody's just passing through.
Everybody's a stranger,
Everybody's just passing through.
Everybody's a stranger
