

Just A Phase

Adam Craig

I'm a blackjack label
You're a classic glass of red
So girl watcha doing here tonight?
Messing up my bed

You don't really love me
You just think that you do
I'm just a phase, you're going through

Someday soon baby
You're gonna wake up and see
There ain't ever gonna be
A forever for you and me

Someday soon baby
You're gonna look back and smile
That you got hooked, on a guy like me
For a little while

'Cause I'm a Friday night'er
You're a Sunday afternoon
I'm a reckless rock and roll'r
You're a last slow dance to a midnight tune

Deep in your heart I know
You know I ain't right for you
I'm just a phase, you're going through
Yeah-eh

Someday soon baby
You're gonna wake up and see
There ain't ever gonna be
A forever for you and me
Yeah-eh

Someday soon baby
You're gonna look back and smile
That you got hooked on a guy like me
For a little while

I guess I might be crazy
For loving life
But baby until the last kiss
From your lips tells me goodbye

I'm gonna lay right here
And pretend that it ain't true
I'm just a phase, you're going through

Yeah, I'm just a phase
You're going through

Girl I'm just a phase
You're going through
