

Ain't She

Adam Doleac

She's wilder than an Oklahoma wind
Where my world ends and where it begins
She's hell on a heart, she's the light in the dark I need
Ain't she

Fresh ink on an old tattoo
Deeper than that ocean is blue
She's the reason I know that I'm right where I'm supposed to be
Ain't she

She ain't like nothin' that I've ever held on to
Way outta mine, but it's like she don't know
I wish her beautiful could see her like I do
If she ain't Heaven, then she's damn near close as I'll ever be
As I'll ever see, yeah, she's way too good for me
Ain't she

She's a plot twist when you think you know
She's champagne in the dive bar smoke
She's my shakin' hands asking for hers to dance
Turnin' into my heart, never lettin' her go

She ain't like nothin' that I've ever held on to
Way outta mine, but it's like she don't know
I wish her beautiful could see her like I do
If she ain't Heaven, then she's damn near close as I'll ever be
As I'll ever see, yeah, she's way too good for me
Ain't she

She's wilder than an Oklahoma wind
Where my world ends and where it begins

She ain't like nothin' that I've ever held on to
Way outta mine, but it's like she don't know
Like she don't know
I wish her beautiful could see her like I do
If she ain't Heaven, then she's damn near close as I'll ever be
As I'll ever see, yeah, she's way too good for me
Ain't she

Ain't she, ah, yeah
Ain't she
