

Moving Target

Adam Doleac

(A moving target)

You're like lookin' out the window while I'm drivin'
Yeah, the picture's always changin' but it's the same frame
One day you want me, can't see yourself without me
Next thing I know, you don't feel the same
Something's holding you back
All I want is a chance
Tell me why, can't you give me that?

I know you, and you know me
And we both know how good this could be
But you keep running, and I keep chasing
Wherever you are, girl, that's where I'm aiming
But the hardest part is, your heart is
Never in the same place it was when it started
Yeah the hardest part is, your heart is
A moving target

(A moving target)

You're the queen of overthinking
All the truth you spill when you're drinkin'
Turn to lies with the sunrise
You don't fall in love you fight
You get scared so you deny it
But I know you know that you feel it too

Cause I know you, and you know me
And we both know how good this could be
But you keep running, and I keep chasing
Wherever you are, girl, that's where I'm aiming
But the hardest part is, your heart is
Never in the same place it was when it started
Yeah the hardest part is, your heart is
A moving target

I can tell you can't help it
But deep down at yourself that you're fighting
And I know I should be movin' on
But I ain't ever done tryin'
I ain't ever done tryin'

Cause I know you, and you know me
And we both know how good this could be
But you keep running, and I keep chasing
Wherever you are, girl, that's where I'm aiming
But the hardest part is, your heart is
Never in the same place it was when it started
Yeah the hardest part is, your heart is
A moving target
A moving target
A moving target
I can't stop it
