

Don't Wanna Love You Anymore

Adam Gregory

can't find no comfort in this house in every room i feel a chill wanna knock that clock down off the wall cause i've got too much time to kill kitchen faucet it still leaks i hear its slow and steady drip reminds me of the things i should've done and what's too late to fix i don't want to love you anymore don't want to love you anymore don't wanna see you leave everytime i close my eyes i don't wanna hear you whisper one more sad goodbye

i don't wanna miss your touch in the middle of the night i just wanna shut that door

i found that button you lost it was underneath the bed and i remember how beautiful you look unbuttoning that dress i don't wanna love you anymore
