

Only Know I Do

Adam Gregory

How do you explain the way the stars just hang way up in the sky How do you explain the way rain goes away whenever you walk by

It's a mystery just how life can lead to a place you've never been You've knocked on that door a hundred times before, when it suddenly let you in

I don't know why
I've been so blessed to love someone like you
I don't know why
I must confess, I only know I do

And how do you explain the way my world has changed right before my eyes And how do you explain the way you gave me wings when I swore I could never fly

It's a mystery what you've done for me I'm at a place I've never been I've knocked on that door a hundred times before now you've suddenly let me in

In my heart, I won't question I'll just lay here in your arms
