

Running

Adam Gregory

I was helpless, broken and blue
I was empty with nothin' left to lose
So tired of being strong
Try to make it on my own
Without you

The moment you came into my life
Was the first time I ever felt alive
You lifted me up
Up and you never let me down

Now I'm running
Yeah I'm running
My feet off the ground
Now I'm running
Yeah I'm running
My feet off the ground
'Cause I'm found

It's a beautiful world that I see
Only real 'cause I believe
Your love is just
Just like the air that I breathe

Now I'm running
Yeah I'm running
My feet off the ground
Now I'm running
Yeah I'm running
'Cause I've been found

I've been dancin' on the stars
I've been singin' to the moon
There's a fire in my heart
And it burns for you
I've been skippin' on the clouds
Always reachin' for the sky
Never lookin' down

Now I'm running
Yeah I'm running
My feet off the ground
Now I'm running
Yeah I'm running
'Cause I've been found

I've been waitin' for the stars
I've been running, running, running, running, running

I've been dancin' on the stars
I've been singin' to the moon
There's a fire in my heart
And it burns for you

Never lookin' down

I was helpless, broken and blue
I was lost till I found you
