Why Don't Cha

Adam Gregory

Why don't cha stop putting yourself through hell
Girl I can tell that you think it's all your fault
Every time [?] you keep hitting the wall
He ain't worth the tears
Girl, my dear, am I making it clear
I'm gonna get cha through it all
If it takes all night long

Why don't cha hang up the phone and come on over
I'll pour you a drink, you can cry on my shoulder
I promise this night won't get any colder
Why don't cha, why don't cha
Jump in your car, baby don't even think twice
Don't gotta waste a minute of moonlight
Yeah we can talk, I've been feeling you just might
Why don't cha

Why don't cha throw some things in the bag
Don't look bag, I'll leave the porch light on
You don't have to knock, he door's unlocked
Girl just come on in
We got our own weekend, forget about him
Can't do this on your own
You don't have to be alone

Why don't cha hang up the phone and come on over
I'll pour you a drink, you can cry on my shoulder
I promise this night won't get any colder
Why don't cha, why don't cha
Jump in your car, baby don't even think twice
Don't gotta waste a minute of moonlight
Yeah we can talk, I've been feeling you just might
Why don't cha, why don't cha
Why don't cha, why don't cha

Let me show you what it feels like
When a man treats you more than right
She's the only thing that's on his mind

Why don't cha just hang up the phone and come on over
I'll pour you a drink, you can cry on my shoulder
I promise this night won't get any colder
Why don't cha
Jump in your car, baby don't even think twice
Don't gotta waste a minute of moonlight
Yeah we can talk, I've been feeling you just might
Why don't cha, why don't cha
Why don't cha, why don't cha
