

ADELAIDE

Adam Melchor

Adelaide
First time in the continental 48
Always dreamt of fireworks
And big parades
Oh Adelaide come here

Adelaide
When the hometown hero called you
Far too late
Said he fucked up and he made
A grave mistake
Oh Adelaide you're near

There's a world outside your window
There's a world outside your door
There's a place where only you know
There's a way to ask for more
So ask for more Adelaide

Adelaide
Hair as red as all the foxes on the glade
Sunburnt kisses on your skin ain't far away
Oh Adelaide come here

There's a world outside your window
There's a world outside your door
There's a place where only you know (you know)
There's a way to ask for more
So ask for more Adelaide

(Oh Adelaide)

Oh there's a world outside your window
There's a world outside your door
There's a place where only you know (only you know)
There's a way to ask for more
So ask for more Adelaide
