

BIGTIMEGOODTIME

Adam Melchor

Rising tides and mudslides
Gender rights and anti-Semites
Wonder why I just can't sleep at night
Wonder if my dreams are right
I'm overworked and underpaid
I get sent nudes but don't get laid
No one's arrows shooting straight
I showed up to the party late

And I'm

Looking for a big time, good time now
I'm looking for a big time, good time now

Open checkbooks, close the borders
Barnes and Noble's new world order
Social currency disorder from the likes that I'm a whore for Isolation all alone
Commence the doom scroll on my phone
I ran out of serotonin, lost it on the way back home

And I'm

Looking for a big time, good time now
I'm looking for a big time, good time now
Looking for a big time, good time now
I'm looking for a big time, good time now

Summer nights 'til sunrise
All the happy tears we still cry
I would rather look deep in your eyes
Than keep on keeping all these lies
'Cause wedding bells and matrimony
Usually end in alimony
But the chance we get it right
Is always worth a ceremony

And I'm

Looking for a big time, good time now
I'm looking for a big time, good time now
Looking for a big time, good time now
I'm looking for a big time, good time now
