

Metadata

Adam Melchor

You don't have to say a thing
You don't have to share the pain I'd bring
And I don't need to see through walls
When the metadata says it all

Postin' pictures
Smiles and beaches
Tennis shoes and matchin' T-shirts
It's out of my hands but it's in my phone
When the metadata says it all

Faith in timin'
Some go your way and others stay in place
I'll be fightin'
Pain and the patience
Pain and the patience

What more can I do now but hold on strong
Take it day by day, it's all your call
I know silence when it's standin' tall
And the metadata says it all

Faith in timin'
Some go your way and others stay in place
I'll be fightin'
Pain and the patience
Pain and the patience
Pain and the patience
Pain and the patience
