

Blessed

Adamantra

How can I explain?
what I feel inside
how much I love you how much I care

You are a blessing and I have been blessed with You

I've found my light in the dark may it also guide your way I'll teach you all that I know
even though it may not be... enough for me

I wonder what you will say when you grow up
can I see you smile?
'cos now when you sleep
I feel the Wisdom
The reason behind it all

(The Reason behind it all...)
