

Shattered

Adamantra

Oppressing within still choking of fear allowing the memories come true I am captured inside a circle of wicked hearts

Oh! Innocence lies in the blackened ground and touched by evil

A Fenix rising
she is fighting to scream to the dawn from the ashes of my infernal pride and my joy

Refusing trial
without the evidence

Assembling survival
dying whispers fill the atmosphere declaring what's right or wrong
the truth is forced aside still living for my dreams...

Everlasting
hate eternal
containing an universe of ever more inside

still living for my dream

and one more day
of peace in my mind
