

High Fashion

Addison Rae

Have you ever dreamt of being seen?
Not by someone, more like in a magazine
Wanting something more than just a hit
Nothing else can make me feel like this
I know I'm drunk, but

I don't need your drugs
I'd rather get, rather get high fashion
I don't want cheap love
I'd rather get high fashion

I don't need your drugs
I'd rather get, rather get high fashion
I don't want cheap love
I'd rather get high fashion

I'd rather feel the sun kiss on my skin
With a cigarette pressed between my tits
You know I'm not an easy fuck
But when it comes to shoes, I'll be a slut
I know I'm drunk, but

I don't need your drugs
I'd rather get, rather get high fashion
I don't want cheap love
I'd rather get high fashion

I don't need your drugs
I'd rather get, rather get high fashion
I don't want cheap love
I'd rather get high fashion

I don't need you, no
I don't need you, no

Spiraling into you, I'm into you
Denial, you make it hard, so hard to choose
Desire (Desire), I know how to make the hard things look really easy
Desire (Desire)
Oh, oh, oh, oh, I don't need you

I don't need your drugs
I'd rather get, rather get high fashion
I don't want cheap love
I'd rather get high fashion

I don't need your drugs
I'd rather get, rather get high fashion
I don't want cheap love
I'd rather get high fashion

I don't need you, no (I'd rather get high fashion)
I don't need you, no (I'd rather get high fashion)

I'd rather get, rather get, rather get
I'd rather get, rather get, rather get
I'd rather get, rather get, rather get

I'd rather get, rather get, rather get
I'd rather get, rather get, rather get
I'd rather get, rather get, rather get
I'd rather get, rather get, rather get
I'd rather get, rather get, rather get

I don't need your drugs
Drugs
I don't want cheap love
High fashion
