

I'll Be Ok

Addison Road

Look at me now, look at me now. am I asking too much?
Would it be so hard, would it be so bad? Is changing that tough
? changing that tough

And I don't know what to say to you
And I don't know if you can ever prove that you love me, that you love me
And I don't know if it'll ever be what I wish for in my dreams
so I'll just be ok

My life flies faster everyday. Can't we find a way, can't we find a way?
Let's start over again, or can we pretend that everything's ok?
we're really all the same

Look at me now, look at me now. am I asking too much? asking too much
And I don't know if it'll ever be what I wish for in my dreams,
so I'll just be ok

I'll just be ok, I'll just be ok [x4]

And I don't know what to say to you
And I don't know if you can ever prove
That you love me, that you love me
And I don't know if it'll ever be What I wish for in my dreams, so I'll just be ok
