

Somewhere We Can Talk

Adelén

You're so typical it's kind of funny
I just started getting over you
Then I see you in the crowd
Heart is racing, thoughts are loud
I didn't know you used to come around here

I'm falling into your eyes
You're talking but I can't hear a thing
The music is way too loud, so please

Let's go somewhere we can talk
No, we didn't plan to start over again
Is that really what we want?
Let's go somewhere we can talk louder again

Scared of looking back and realize that I could've fought much harder for us two
I wanna take it back
Find another way for us
'Cause I never really stopped thinking about you, no

I'm falling into your eyes
You're talking but I can't hear a thing
The music is way too loud, so please

Let's go somewhere we can talk
No, we didn't plan to start over again
Is that really what we want?
Let's go somewhere we can talk louder again
Let's go somewhere we can talk

Let's go somewhere we can
Let's go, let's go somewhere we can talk
No, we didn't plan to start over again
Is that really what we want?
Let's go somewhere we can talk louder again
Let's go somewhere we can talk

Can we talk about us
'Bout the life and the trust
'Bout the time that we've lost
I see you're here with someone
But is she really the one
Is she as good as I was
Let's go somewhere we can talk
