

2AM

Adeline Hill

This is your 2 AM, leave it all well spent
And just break down and cry
Cause heartbreak can't be pushed aside
This is your heart undone, take all the time you want
And some will try to help, but there is freedom in breaking down

So darling just cry if you want to
Dance like you're gonna be queen of the world in the morning
Oh just scream a bit louder, just sing in the shower
Who cares if the neighbors wake up
'Cause this is your 2 AM song

This is the storm inside, don't you dare deny
That your heart is on your sleeve
But that's the best place it can be

So darling just cry if you want to
Dance like you're gonna be queen of the world in the morning
Oh just scream a bit louder, just sing in the shower
Who cares if the neighbors wake up
'Cause this is your 2 AM song

(Let it go, let it go)
Oohhh
Your 2 AM song ohhhh

And they never said it was gonna be easy
But they never said it would hurt this bad
So when people try to tell you different
Remember it's okay to be sad

Ooooh

So darling just cry if you want to
Dance like you're gonna be queen of the world in the morning
Oh just scream a bit louder
Just sing in the shower
Who cares if the neighbors wake up

So just cry if you want to
Dance like you're gonna be queen of the world in the morning
Oh just scream a bit louder
Just sing in the shower
Who cares if the neighbors wake up
'Cause this is your 2 AM song

(Let it go, let it go)
Oohhh
Your 2 AM song ohhhh

Your 2 AM song
