

Does She Know

Adeline Hill

I've heard the rumors
You're loving someone new
She lives in the city
Like I've always wanted to

It's strange to think that
You were all I knew
I bet she's lovely
It's just that I'm wondering

Does she know you wanna move to Chicago
Get a nice place with a view
Does she wanna share your cigarettes
While talking to the moon
Does she know your favorite colors
Does she know you mother better than I do
Does she know that if she ever let's you go
All she's gonna think about is you

Our memories follow me
Like it's my perfume
I wish I could be her friend
So I could be close to you

I wonder if you
Ever feel the same
Probably not, but then again
There's no harm in wondering

Does she know you wanna move to Chicago
Get a nice place with a view
Does she wanna share your cigarettes
While talking to the moon
Does she know your favorite colors
Does she know you mother better than I do
Does she know that if she ever let's you go
All she's gonna think about is you

Does she know
Does she know
Does she know
Cause I know
I know

Does she know you wanna move to Chicago
Get a nice place with a view
Does she wanna share your cigarettes
While talking to the moon
Does she know your favorite colors
Does she know you mother better than I do
Does she know that if she ever let's you go
All she's gonna think about is you

Does she know
Does she know

Does she know

Cause I know
I know
