

You Wanted This

Adema

You wanted to run
You wanted to hide
You wanted to find the reasons, lost in mine

I know, the things you say are true
I know, inside what's bleeding through

I want you to know just how I feel
I'm losing control as you shut me down
(Ohh, ohh)
You shut me down
(Ohh, ohh)
You shut me down

You want to control
You want to deny
I can't unsee the demons, that you still hide in your mind

I know, the lies we spread are true
I know, inside what's bleeding through

I want you to know just how I feel
I'm losing control as you shut me down
(Ohh, ohh)
You shut me down
(Ohh, ohh)
You shut me down

I can see this altered line
As my life keeps grinding me down
(You're never gonna get me down)
Not how I pictured myself until now
As blindness starts to fade
(You're never gonna get me down)
I can see this altered line
But the fighting is still insane
(You're never gonna get me down)
As I try to close my eyes
All I see is your face
(You're never gonna get me down)
Like an echo on my pain
Like the ice inside your veins

I want you to know just how I feel
I'm losing control as you shut me down
(Ohh, ohh)
You shut me down
(Ohh, ohh)
You shut me down

I want you to know just how I feel
(You're never gonna get me down)
I'm losing control as you shut me down
(You're never gonna get me down)
(Ohh, ohh)
You shut me down
(You're never gonna get me down)

(Ohh, ohh)
You shut me down
(You're never gonna get me down)
