

Framing The Agony

Admiral Freebee

See the big stars falling
Leaning in all day
I reached for the pillow
Where my baby used to lay
If I stay here I'll end up
Ragged and dirty too
When I've forgotten all the rest
Honey, I'll remember you

The singer sings, he loves
He lives but he does not learn
He just needs another Troy to burn
While he's waiting for the tide to turn

I've got nothing left to say
I don't plead insanity
I'm gonna jump into my van
Hey, I've found a remedy
I am married to my song
Married to the mistery
I'm gonna study and refuse it
Hey, I'm framing the agony

The singer sings, he loves
He lives but he does not learn
He just needs another Troy to burn
While he's waiting for the tide to turn
