

Broken Window

Adolescents

Tell me why people call these eyes
The window to the soul
Yeah tell me
Why I can't read your eyes
Just tell me how
Then tell me

How to act
I can't act that way
How to look
I can't look that way
How to speak
I can't speak that way
To look away, just look away

Tell me why I'm not listening
I've had enough
Heard enough
Yeah tell me
Why I need to see your eyes
That window's shut
I've had enough
Then tell me
Don't look away

Broken - broken
Broken window

Don't Look Away

Tell me why I knew it all along
It felt so wrong
Felt so wrong
And tell me why
I sense the vice, the apathy
Then tell me
Don't look away
