

Silver And Black

Adolescents

It's a cold new world
When I look close enough
Outside of time I stand in line
Trying to figure out how to unwind

In this age of indulgence
Got no time to reflect
Don't need a goddamn wall
I've got nothing... nothing to protect

Yesterday was all black and blue
You know, you saw it too

In this age of indulgence
Got no time to reflect
Don't need a goddamn wall
I've got nothing... nothing to protect

Yesterday was black and blue
You know, cause you saw it too

In this age of indulgence
I don't wanna reflect
Don't need nothing
Just need silver and black
Silver and black
Silver and black
Silver and black
Silver and black
Silver and black
