Adolescents

Nightmares so livid, I live them every day
When I close my eyes they still don't go away
Learning to embrace this world of disarray
Yeah! Come with me!

Stand up to them
Stand up to them
Stand up to them
Stand and watch them fall

This world did this to you when we were too young to know
I tried to shield you from it, I tried to take the blow
They just kept coming at us, they wouldn't let it go
No! Why would they?

Nightmares so livid, I live them every day
When I close my eyes they still don't go away
Learning to embrace this world of disarray
Yeah! Come with me!

Stand up to them
Stand up to them
Stand up to them
Stand and watch them fall

Put your cards on their table, got yourself to blame
We can make our own rules if we play this game
Any way the chips fall, it all ends up the same
Yeah! We lose

Stand up to them
Stand up to them
Stand up to them
Stand and watch them fall
Watch them all fall
