

Wit Is Not Magic

Ador Dorath

Only the one who dares to go further than the others... Learns how far he can really go.

Only the one who search... Where no one expect anything... Finds what he was longing for.

Who has nothing, loses nothing... Only the one who really loved... Can share with others.

Only the one who reached the top of the mountain... Knows how hard is the way up...

The higher you climb, the more you see.

Only the one who knows the poverty... Can appreciate the wealth.

Only the one who understands the causes... Doesn't repeat his faults.

Only the one who can really apprehend... Understands also what wasn't said.

Only the one who has a clean conscience... Can face himself.

Only the one who reached the top of the mountain... Knows how hard is the way up...

The higher you climb, the more you see.

Only the one who dares to go further than the others... Learns how far he can really go.

Only the one who search... Where no one expect anything... Finds what he was longing for.
