

Peaceable Kingdom

Adrian Belew

When I wake up in my tree wake up in my bedroom tree a little girl and a parakeet are singing to me

My, oh my, what a peaceable kingdom why would I ever wanna leave leave a peaceable kingdom

And when I wake up on the floor on the carpeted forest floor all of the squirrels in their conifers are saying to me

My, oh my, even if you had set of wings why would you ever wanna fly from a peaceable kingdom oh my, oh my, what a peaceable kingdom
leave a peaceable kingdom

It's quiet a night when the monkeys retire so we lay down our faces by the fireplace and sing softly
what a peaceable kingdom
