

Quicksand

Adrian Belew

Sometimes I'm paralyzed with life speeding by
I never seem to get anywhere
No matter how hard I try
Oh it used to be, I thought, I was in command
Now I know I'm up to my chin in quicksand

Is there no thread of hope that we control?
Oh if you could only pull me up...
I will never let you down, let you down

I will never let you down

Oh if you could only pull me up...
I will never let you down, let you down
I will never let you down
I will never let you down, let you down
I will never let you down

I will never let you down
