Hey babe. I was hoping to hear your voice, I haven't heard from you all day. I know you are stressing out about getting this project done. I would be too, like you doing all this shit on your own and... shit you just finished your first movie, like, you out here really grinding. That shit's just motivating me, like... [?] you know this album is about to be crazy. Keep grinding and... I just want you to know I'm proud of you. I'll be up for a little while. I just wanna hear your voice, okay?
