

fangs lungs ankles

Adrianne Lenker

So much easier said than done
I see you see me lie in front of everyone
You come to me like the setting sun
You warm me with your light and then you leave when you're done
On the day you called me your love
I cried into your jacket, wiped snot on my glove

God knows, angel glows
Rainbows, river flows
Wind blows, highs, lows
Eyes closed, windows

Try so hard not to think of you
You hit my mind like a freight train when I do
Neil says razor love cuts straight through
You had me to love and you shot me with it too

God knows, angel glows
Rainbows, river flows
Wind blows, highs, lows
Eyes closed, windows
Guiding those tangles
Making strange angles
Fangs, lungs, ankles
Pain comes, pain goes

Try so hard not to be like him
But I threw my fist into the wall again
Trying hard not to see like her
But I freeze so much and I freeze like her
Oops
I see so much that I freeze like her

God knows, angel glows
Rainbows, river flows
Wind blows, highs, lows
Eyes closed, windows
Guiding those tangles
Making strange angles
Pain-- fangs, lungs, ankles
Pain comes, pain goes
